WORKSHOPS:

SSW Workshop: Ceramics Paper Kiln

INFO: SSW Ceramic Technicians Beth Bidwell and Heather Fulton will lead a workshop with participants to build a paper kiln and fire ceramics. Please feel free to bring your own bisque fired ceramics. A limited number of pre-made and bisque fired ceramic pieces will be available on the day for people to work on.

TIME: The building of the paper kiln will take place over the Saturday. It will be lit Saturday evening and opened Sunday morning.

SSW Workshop: Cuttlefish Casting

INFO: SSW Technicians Eden Jolly and Uist Corrigan will lead a workshop sharing one of the simplest casting methods, Cuttlefish Casting. Participants will have the opportunity to carve their own cuttlefish casts and pour pewter into the casts.

TIME: Workshop Saturday morning from 11.00am – 1.00pm.

Artist-led Workshop: Jan Hendry - Twist and Stitch

INFO: Fife-based artist Jan Hendry's Twist and Stitch workshop is based around the theme of making something from very little; showing people the potential in simple and easily obtained 'stuff' by teaching basic skills and then encouraging participants to improvise with what's available. Using natural and found materials, Jan will teach participants how to make string and rope, and how to stitch coiled materials into hollowed forms. Website: janhendry.com

TIME: Jan will run drop in workshops on both Saturday and Sunday between 11.00am and 1.00pm.

Artist-led Workshop: Petra Vergunst - Rowan's Story

INFO: Within her practice, Petra Vergunst uses creative writing, drawing and music, to allow her to work directly with people on themes related to landscape and nature. Petra's workshop Rowan's Story invites participants to work together to perform a story inspired by Rowan tree folklore. Following sensory exploration of rowan, participants will build a storyline by thinking about character, motivation, challenge and resolution. Using the tree and/or other environmental materials, they will then create objects that they can use in a performance of gestures related to key moments in their narrative.

TIME: Saturday Only. Workshop starts 2.00pm at SSW but will take place offsite within walking distance from SSW, returning to SSW at 3.30pm. Please book on the day.

Artist-led Workshop: Theo Shields – Contemporary Artifact Making

INFO: Previous SSW Artist in Residence, Theo Shields will deliver a reading group, demonstration and workshop examining the primary tool making practice of our Neolithic ancestors: flint knapping. The workshop will consist of a demonstration of historic flint knapping, an introduction to Theo's practice and his own interest in the subject of flint knapping, and will look at texts which examine the relationship between the development of stone technology and the link with embedding memory, creativity and the development of early human psyche. Website: www.theoshields.com

TIME: Saturday Only. From 4.30pm -6.00pm. 10 participants Maximum. Please book on the day.

ARTIST-LED PARTICIPATORY ACTIVITIES:

Artist-led Activity: Aaron McCarthy- PRIVY

INFO: Aaron McCarthy presents his sculptural text in a temporary installation exploring the longevity of materiality, language, public artwork and place-making. Over the weekend Aaron will lead two walks towards The Buck of Cabrach, visiting the site where his work is installed. He will also be screening Rachel Reupke's film Infrastructure (2002, LUX) and a lead discussion surrounding moving image, landscape and language. Website: www.cargocollective.com/aaronmccarthy
TIME: Film screening and discussion Saturday 3.00pm. Walks Saturday evening and Saturday morning.

Artist-led Activity: Working 9-5- Everyone Will Wanna Take Part in This Rave

INFO: Working 9-5 is a collective made up of full-time workers based in the North East of Scotland. With an interest in after-office-hours social activities, Working 9-5 will be facilitating a DJ(s) set entitled Everyone Will Wanna Take Part in This Rave. Working 9-5 will also be onsite during the day making decorations, props and costumes for the DJ(s) set. Anyone can join in. The DJ(s) set will be democratic with an open-tab Youtube playlist where anyone can select the next party banger to be played. Artists involved in Everyone Will Wanna Take Part in This Rave are Joss Allen, Rachael Disbury, Catrin Jeans and Fraser MacDonald.
